Galerie Thomas to present outstanding works by Constantin Brancusi and Banksy

Galerie Thomas, Munich is proud to announce two outstanding works to be presented at the gallery's booth at Art Basel Miami Beach 2021.

Constantin Brancusi's "L'oiseau d'or" ("Golden Bird") is certainly one of the most iconic creations in modern sculpture. Brancusi's completely new approach to sculpture and space at the beginning of the 20th century led him to this extremely beautiful, subtle and severe form. All marbles and bronze lifetime casts, only four works altogether are in museum collections today. The heirs of Constantin Brancusi therefore initiated a small edition of this work in 1980, to which the work Galerie Thomas exhibits belongs. A rare opportunity for an encounter with this milestone creation outside of a museum!

Perhaps the most famous figure in street art working today, Banksy is known for urban interventions that demonstrate irreverent wit and a biting political edge. Enhancing his mystique by maintaining an anonymous identity, the artist has modified street signs, illegally printed his own currency, and illicitly hung his own work in the Louvre and the Museum of Modern Art. Galerie Thomas shows a unique piece of a version of Banksy's famous "Girl with TV" the artist created for Britpop heroes Blur in 2004.
